

FORMATION AT ST. LUKE'S Winter 2006

Parish Forums for Winter 2006

(in the Parlor, except when otherwise indicated)

Feb. 5: Newcomer Sunday: Church Tour

Feb. 12: Sita Balthazar, "The Battle over the Holy Land"

Feb. 19: Lectionary Preview (A.K.M. Adam)

Mar. 5: Newcomer Sunday: "Basic Values of the Anglican/ Episcopal Tradition"

Mar. 12: Bishop Persell's Episcopal Visitation

Mar. 19: Lectionary Preview (A.K.M. Adam)

Mar. 26: Sarah McFarland Taylor
(Northwestern U. Department of Religion)
"The Greening of American Religion"

Winter Mini-Course

"The Battle Over the Holy Land"

Ms. Sita Balthazar

Monday Evenings, Feb. 27 – April 3

7:00-8:00pm

Class topics will be: "The Conflict in the Middle East: An Introduction," "A Security Wall or A Barrier to Peace," "The Jerusalem Question," "The Holy Land's Christians: Caught in the Middle," "To Eat, Sleep and Pray with an M-16: Life as an Israeli Soldier," "Palestinian and Israeli Children: What now." Ms. Balthazar has taught international law and other subjects at the University of Jerusalem, served in a legal support network for Amnesty International, participated in the proceedings of the U.N. International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda, and worked in various capacities within the United States on legal rights for women. Suggested $50 contribution from participants.

St. Luke's Church

939 Hinman Ave.

Evanston, IL

(corner of Hinman & Lee)

www.stlukesevanston.org

847.475.3630